6. Names will not be duplicated within the jurisdiction of the Strait Regional School Board. Every effort shall also be made to avoid confusion with names of other school facilities throughout the province.
7. In the event no suitable names for new facilities are submitted, a second call for names will be made. Should no appropriate names be submitted after the second call, the Board will determine what course of action will be taken.
8. The final decision of the Strait Regional School Board is binding.
